

Paul Hooper

COMEDIAN

Name one comic who can hit the stage like an atom bomb and keep the audience exploding with laughter even after he's gone. That's right, it's Paul Hooper. Known for kicking the feet out from underneath conservative humor and finding the funny side to natural disaster, this young man is on the fast track to stardom. Loved by crowds and comics nationwide, Paul steamrolls non-stop thru a set and seldom gives the audience time to breath. "R" Rated.
